26 If more room is needed, attach additional sheets.

27 All documents shall be produced as they are kept in the normal course of business or shall 28 be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories listed. NRCP 45(d)(1).

1 (B) When Permitted. On timely motion, the court that issued a subpoena may quash or modify the 2 subpoena if it requires disclosing:

- 3 (i) a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or
- 4 (ii) a non-retained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in 5 dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

6 (C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), 7 the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order an appearance or production 8 under specified conditions if the party serving the subpoena:

- 9 (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without 10 undue hardship; and
- 11 (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

12 (d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

13 (1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to 14 producing documents or electronically stored information:

15 (A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as 16 they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the 17 categories in the demand.

18 (B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not 19 specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce 20 it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

21 (C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need 22 not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

23 (D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide 24 discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not 25 reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a 26 protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible
27 because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery
28 from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

29 (2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

30 (A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is 31 privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- 32 (i) expressly make the claim; and
- 33 (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a 34 manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties 35 to assess the claim.

36 (B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim 37 of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify 38 any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party 39 must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not 40 use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the 41 information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information
42 under seal to the court for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information 43 must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

44 (e) Contempt; Costs. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that 45 person may be deemed a contempt of the court that issued the subpoena. In connection with a motion for a 46 protective order brought under Rule 26(c), a motion to compel brought under Rule 45(c)(2)(B), or a motion
47 to quash or modify the subpoena brought under Rule 45(c)(3), the court may consider the provisions of Rule 48 37(a)(5) in awarding the prevailing person reasonable expenses incurred in making or opposing the motion.
