

Cortney Young is a Mediator and Arbitrator at ADR Partners. Her approach to dispute resolution combines years of litigation experience with a pragmatic problem-solving style. Ms. Young spent over a decade with the Litigation and Trial team at Chapman Law Firm, one of Nevada's premier eminent domain and real property law firms. Cortney was a key player in the firm's ADR litigation practice where she worked with the firm's attorneys to ensure each case was well prepared for trial, participating in substantive strategic and tactical planning with an eye towards winning or obtaining a favorable settlement.

In 2021, she founded ADR Partners which is a full-service dispute resolution company where Ms. Young continues to resolve millions of dollars annually in pending or threatened litigation.

Ms. Young's mediation practice is focused on the resolution of litigated disputes, including, but not limited to, asset valuation, eminent domain and land valuation litigation, securities, probate and trust disputes, breach of contract, homeowner association disputes, foreclosures and super-priority mediation, boundary disputes, landlord-tenant, dissolution of marriage, and complex civil litigation.

Cortney is the President of the Nevada Dispute Resolution Coalition, Chair of Influential Women of the Sierra Nevada, Vice Chair of the Reno Human Rights Commission and founder of the Children's Cancer Classic. In 2017, Cortney was named a Twenty Under Forty winner. In 2019, she received a Powerful Women award for her work in dispute resolution and contributions to the community.

Cortney's commitment to the Washoe County Law Library is rooted in her deep belief that all people should have access to quality legal information and services.
